EASY EASTER EATS ONE-PAN DISHES TO MAKE HOSTING SIMPLE

Even if Easter hosting duties fell on your plate this year and added one more thing to your holiday to-do list, that doesn't mean it has to be difficult. After all, Easter is a time meant for fun and fellowship with the food just one part of the celebration.

Building the menu around simple, one-pan dishes can keep the focus where it needs to be: spending time and creating memories with family and friends. These dishes call for short lists of ingredients, many of which you may already have in your pantry, and simple preparation to create a full spread perfect for sharing with loved ones. Plus, using only one pan makes cleanup a breeze, so you can get back to the festivities quickly.

A dish like this Easter Roast lets you check both the main course and side dishes off your list, relying on the oven to do most of the work for you after some quick prep work. Similarly easy to prepare, these Refrigerator Rolls can also be made up to six days in advance and stored in the fridge until ready to bake – a perfect complement to the savory roast and veggies.

Finish off your feast with an adaptable dessert like this Blueberry Crumble. Made using just five ingredients and ready in about an hour, you can swap the blueberry pie filling and yellow cake mix for any combination that suits your guests' tastes like apple pie filling with spice cake or cherry pie filling with chocolate cake; the sky's the limit when it comes to satisfying that sweet tooth.

For more Easter recipe inspiration, visit Culinary.net.

Easter Roast

- Yield: 1 roast
- Salt
 - pepper
 - garlic powder
 - 1 roast (3 pounds)
 - 1 bag (1 pound) baby carrots
 - 1 bag (1 1/2 pounds) trio potatoes or potato of choice
 - 3 cups beef broth
 - 1 can (10 ounces) cream of mushroom soup
 - 1 tablespoon garlic pepper
 - 3 tablespoons brown sugar
 - 1 onion, roughly chopped
 - 1 bundle asparagus

Preheat oven to 350 F.

Sprinkle salt, pepper and garlic powder over roast and rub into front, back and sides. Place seasoned roast in middle of large roasting pan.

Place carrots on one side of roasting pan and potatoes on other side.

In large bowl, mix beef broth and cream of mushroom soup with garlic pepper. Pour mixture over roast, potatoes and carrots. Sprinkle brown sugar over carrots and add chopped onion. Cover and cook 2 1/2 hours then remove from oven, add asparagus and cook uncovered 30 minutes.

Serve from pan or place on platter for more formal presentation.

Refrigerator Rolls

- Yield: 18 rolls
- 2 packages yeast
 - 1/2 cup sugar
 - 2 cups lukewarm water
 - 6-7 cups all-purpose flour, divided
 - 2 teaspoons salt
 - 2 eggs
 - 1 stick softened butter

oil, divided

In large bowl, dissolve yeast and sugar in lukewarm water. When yeast is foamy, add 3 cups flour. Mix in salt, eggs and butter.

Once mixed well, add remaining flour 1 cup at a time and knead dough into ball in bowl. Remove dough from bowl and place on clean surface.

Wash and dry bowl then grease with drizzle of oil. Place dough in bowl and let rise 1 hour or store in refrigerator if making in advance.

When ready to use, grease muffin pan with oil. Roll dough into hand-size balls and place in each muffin hole; cover 1 hour.

Heat oven to 350 F. Bake rolls 30 minutes.

Note: Dough can be made in advance and stored in refrigerator up to six days. If making ahead, punch down dough, cover and place in refrigerator. Punch down daily until ready to use.

Blueberry Crumble

Yield: 1 cake

- 1 can blueberry pie filling
 - 1 box yellow cake mix
 - 1 bag (4 ounces) chopped pecans
 - 1 stick butter, melted
 - 1/4 cup oil
 - whipped cream, for serving (optional)
 - vanilla ice cream, for serving (optional)
- Preheat oven to 350 F.

Spread pie filling on bottom of 9-by-11-inch pan. Sprinkle cake mix and pecans on top. Do not mix.

Drizzle melted butter and oil on top of cake mix and pecans. Do not mix. Lift pan and tilt from side to side until cake mix is completely covered in butter.

Bake 1 hour until golden brown and bubbly.

Serve with whipped cream or vanilla ice cream, if desired.

FUN EASTER GIFTS KIDS WILL LOVE

While bunny- and egg-shaped candies are always crowd-pleasing favorites during Easter, you can make the holiday extra special for kids with some less sugary treats that can be enjoyed year-round. For a joy-filled celebration, get inspired with these fun and egg-cellent ideas for Easter baskets:

Great Books

Books unlock new worlds and ideas, making them great gifts on any occasion. Easter is no exception. Use the opportunity to stock children's shelves with fiction by favorite and new-to-them authors, as well as non-fiction books on subjects of interest to them. With the thoughtful gift of brand-new titles to discover, they'll be well-prepared to stay engaged and entertained during the downtime of spring and summer vacation ahead. A few thematic ideas include, "The Good Egg: An Easter and Springtime Book for Kids" and "The Velveteen Rabbit."

Cool Toys

Make children's days tweet-tastic with VTech Gabbers, fluffy bird buddies that can be brought along on adventures by sliding a fabric-covered magnetic egg under one's shoulder sleeve and perching the bird on top. Three different colored Gabbers: Jay Blue, Finch Pink and Owl White, all sing, make funny sounds and will repeat and tweet the things kids say in a funny voice! Whether you gift one bird, or all three, this will be a beloved and adorable addition to any Easter basket. Another cool idea that puts a spin on Easter eggs? Switch & Go Hatch & Roaaar Eggs. They open up to include all the pieces needed to build 2-in-1 dinosaur vehicles. The line-up includes a t-rex racer, pterodactyl chopper and more. For more toys that make great Easter gifts, visit amazon.com/vtechtoys.

Inspiration and Gear

Another fun addition to Easter baskets is gear and tools that support kids' hobbies, passions and talents. For example, if you're shopping for a young artist, consider gifting them a watercolor set, crafting kit or kid-friendly knitting needles. For a child interested in the performing arts, you can get them started on their journey with a gift certificate for music, acting or dance lessons. Or, help get a budding athlete prepared for the spring and summer sports seasons ahead with a light-up baseball or softball, which will allow them to extend their game of catch into the evening, giving them a competitive edge.

With a few tweaks to your Easter basket routine, you can make the holiday fun and memorable for children. (StatePoint)

NATIONAL NUTRITION MONTH 2024, "BEYOND THE TABLE"

By Lisa "Clutch" Tauai, Retired Air Force Lieutenant Colonel and Registered Dietitian and Ms. International 2024

As Ms. International 2024 and a Registered Dietitian, my goal is to teach and help others prevent or even reverse chronic disease through the power of optimal nutrition. By flooding your body with a variety of fruits and vegetables every day, you are consuming antioxidants and phytochemicals that will substantially improve your health. The goal is to ensure that half of your plate is composed of fruits and vegetables. When I made this change, I rejoiced in learning my cholesterol had dropped by 50 points!

Every March, we celebrate National Nutrition Month and this year the theme is "Beyond the Table". Beyond the Table is about growing food, distributing food, purchasing food at the grocery store or farmers market, and how we treat the food at home. It also focuses on food safety and storage of the foods we eat. Beyond the Table makes us take a step back and think about how our food choices affect the health of our planet. It also is intended to make us think about the work that goes into producing the foods we eat and how our food is grown or raised and where and how it is made.

March, being National Nutrition Month and the beginning of spring, is the perfect time to step back and learn about what is involved in growing your food. Start by visiting your local farms and farmers markets and talk to people who harvest and grow your food. You can also volunteer to assist with community gardens to learn how to grow your own produce. Consider starting off by growing herbs or lettuce indoors and produce like tomatoes, peppers, and strawberries under a patio or porch that provides enough sunlight.

In addition to learning more about growing your own produce, National Nutrition Month is a great time to reevaluate other wellness goals. A variety of healthy eating and wellness resources are available at <https://www.eatright.org/national-nutrition-month/> resources for wonderful healthy eating/wellness with one of them being National Nutrition Month's 20 Health Tips.

Number 2 of the top 3 health tips is to make half of your plate fruits and vegetables. The other top 3 tips include eating breakfast and controlling portion sizes. Research studies prove that people who eat breakfast are thinner than those who don't. Eating a healthy breakfast provides a jump start to your day with complex carbohydrates, proteins, and healthy fats to help you perform at your best. Even if you are making healthy choices, it is still important to control your portion sizes.

Start by reviewing the Nutrition Facts Label to learn what a portion size is before you eat it. You can even use measuring cups and spoons or a food scale to measure out a portion size if you are trying to be more exact in meeting your daily calorie and macronutrient goals.

As you are making strides to improve your health, remember to take it slow working on one goal at a time. This will help you create a healthy lifestyle that will be realistic, sustainable, and ultimately result in the best version of you!

OOH LA LA: ZSA ZSA GABOR'S SEXY PALM SPRINGS HOME SOLD

One of Palm Springs most colorful homes - it once belonged to Magda Gabor and then her sister, Zsa Zsa - has sold. Originally listed at $3.8 million, the price was later reduced to $2.6 million. The final sale price has not yet been disclosed.

Hungarian bombshell Zsa Zsa Gabor competed in beauty pageants, appeared in such films as Moulin Rouge and We're Not Married!, and made frequent television appearances, but was best known for her lavish lifestyle. Sometimes considered the original "celebrity," she jet-setted around the world, dated numerous high-powered men, and hosted glamorous soirees. Married nine times including to hotel magnate Conrad Hilton and actor George Sanders, she was famous for her witty one-liners such as "I am a marvelous housekeeper: Every time I leave a man I keep his house." Zsa Zsa's sisters Eva (married five times) and Magda (married six times) were also well-known socialites, and the family was a dynamic force during Hollywood's Golden Age.

A pink home that was built for Magda Gabor in 1964 by her fourth husband, Arthur "Tony" Gallucci, and became Zsa Zsa's home after Magda died in 1997 was listed in early 2023 for $3.8 million and later reduced to $2.6 million. The Palm Springs estate has been lovingly maintained, preserving the one-of-a-kind Gabor glamour present in every room, including many original furnishings. Seated atop a hill in the upscale Palm Springs neighborhood of Little Tuscany, the home offers 360-degree mountain and city views.

A covered veranda looks out on the mosaic-tiled, full-sized pool. Black-and-gold, hand-carved double doors stand out against the bubblegum pink exterior. The sweeping living and dining rooms offer elegant chandeliers, mirrored walls, and a grand piano. The kitchen features Viking appliances as well as an original Hungarian rotisserie, beneath a distinctive gold-trowled ceiling and framed by glass cabinets. Stone floors and great views abound throughout the home. The primary suite is especially luxurious, featuring unique botanical wallpaper and gold accents. The spacious suite includes a sitting room/office, a dressing room, a makeup room, dual vanities, a shower and an oversized relaxing tub. Patio access completes the decadent space. Two additional bedrooms and bathrooms each have their own unique style.

The home's artificial grass and stone patio is easy to maintain and eco-friendly. Surrounded by palm trees and backed up against the mountains, the 3,441-square-foot home offers unparalleled privacy. The home offers quick access to the North Lykken hiking trail and is just down the street from mid-century modern landmark The Edris House. Copleys on Palm Canyon, an award-winning restaurant at the former estate of Clark Gable, plus numerous other shops, restaurants, boutiques, and architecturally and culturally significant homes are within a short drive.

Palm Springs is a desert city known for its hot springs, stylish hotels, golf courses and spas, and has long been a popular escape for celebrities. Elvis spent his honeymoon at a local estate known as "The House of Tomorrow," while Dinah Shore, Liberace, Spencer Tracy, Cary Grant and Katharine Hepburn are just a few celebrities who have called the area home. Current residents include Leonardo DiCaprio, Lily Tomlin, Goldie Hawn and Kurt Russell.

The listing was held by Brady Sandahl and Jan Ray with the Brady Sandahl Real Estate Group. Source: www.leveragere.com toptenrealestatedeals.com

GET CREATIVE WITH EASTER SWEETS

Kid-friendly crafts that bring loved ones together

Kids Krafty Easter Cake Pops

Kids Krafty Easter Cake Pops

Recipe courtesy of "Cookin' Savvy"

- 1 box cake mix
- 1 can frosting
- 1 bunny chocolate mold
- 1 cakesicle mold
- ice pop sticks
- 1 bag white chocolate chips or melting chips
- cake pop sticks
- 1 bag orange melting chips
- 2 tablespoons canola or coconut oil, divided
- 1 bag green melting chips
- pastel sprinkles
- 1 piece hard foam (optional)
- edible markers

Bake cake according to package instructions and let cool completely.

Crumble cake and mix with 1/2 can frosting until dough forms. Add more frosting, if needed. Using small cookie scoop, form dough into balls and set aside. Place dough in bunny molds then pop out and set aside with balls. Place dough in cakesicle mold, insert ice pop stick in each slot and freeze 5-10 minutes.

Melt handful of white melting chips. Stick tip of each cake pop stick in chocolate then insert into every cake ball and bunny until each has one stick. Set aside to dry.

Remove cakesicles from freezer and pop out of molds. In bowl, melt orange melts then mix in 1 tablespoon oil and transfer to cup. Dip cakesicles and scrape off excess using rim of cup. Place on parchment paper to dry.

In bowl, melt green melts then place in zip-top or piping bag. Cut tip off bag, pipe carrot leaves onto piece of parchment paper and let dry.

Melt remaining white melts and mix in remaining oil. Transfer to cup and dip ball-shaped cake pops and bunnies then tap stick on edge of cup to remove excess.

Over separate bowl, sprinkle ball-shaped pops with pastel sprinkles. To keep ball shape, let dry by sticking in piece of hard foam. Bunnies can dry face side up on parchment paper. After bunnies are dry, use edible markers to make face and color in ears.

When carrots and leaves are dry, remelt orange melts and place in piping or zip-top bag. Cut off tip and drizzle orange over carrots. Add small line of orange on each ice pop stick and place leaves on each stick. Let dry.

FAMILY FEATURES

Holiday hams and deviled eggs may take center stage at Easter gatherings, but edible crafts offer a reminder of the magic of the season that's found in moments spent together. Simple recipes that call for a dose of creativity are perfect ways to bring the kids to the kitchen, made even easier when all that work leads to sweet treats.

While plastic eggs may have led to a decline in good, old-fashioned egg-dyeing, there are still fun ways to bring crafts back to Easter celebrations. Consider these Kids Krafty Easter Cake Pops, which call for little ones to help dip seasonal shapes in chocolate, use cake molds and more.

Children of virtually any age can relish in the joys of using cookie cutters and decorating Easter Sugar Cookies, all with a little supervision and short list of instructions. This version shows how to make the cookies and homemade icing so you can create any color you desire for maximum creativity.

Remember, these delicious crafts don't have to be perfect – having fun and making memories that last a lifetime are what make Easter truly special.

Easter Sugar Cookies

Recipe courtesy of "Cookin' Savvy"

Icing:

- 1/3 cup meringue powder
- 1/2 cup warm water, plus additional for thinning (optional), divided
- 3 tablespoons vanilla
- 1 bag (2 pounds) powdered sugar
- 2 tablespoons corn syrup
- assorted food coloring

Cookies:

- 2 sticks unsalted butter, at room temperature
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 tablespoon vanilla
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 dash salt
- 3 cups all-purpose flour

To make icing: Mix meringue powder, 1/2 cup warm water, vanilla, powdered sugar and corn syrup. Separate into bowls and add food coloring; mix with water, as needed, to thin for piping.

To make cookies: Heat oven to 350 F. Cream butter and sugar. Mix in egg, vanilla, baking powder and salt. Mix in flour 1 cup at a time to form dough. Roll dough out to 1/4-1/2-inch thickness.

Cut into shapes, place on baking sheet and freeze 10 minutes. Bake 8-12 minutes. Cool completely before icing.

Place icing in zip-top or piping bags and cut off tips. Put cookies on parchment paper. Trace outline first then fill in middle. Use toothpicks to smooth out.

Let dry 6 hours and finish decorating with different icing colors or edible markers.

Taste of Wine & Food

By Frank Mangio & Rico Cassoni

CARLSBAD'S NEW WINE SHOP, WINE BIRDS, HOSTS SONOMA'S JEREMY RIDDLE WINE TASTING

Jeremy Riddle, Owner/Winemaker, Riddle Wines pouring his 2020 Sparkling Grenache.

Story and photos by Rico Cassoni.
Frank and I had the opportunity to check out Carlsbad's newest wine shop, Wine Birds, owned by Rod and Katya Skorik near Prager Brothers Artisan Breads bakery off Faraday Drive. Our visit was timed with a Riddle Wines wine tasting with owner/winemaker Jeremy Riddle. I suspect that some might be thinking, huh, another wine store in North County or at least this was a question that I had. Specifically, I asked Rod about his strategy of how he will differentiate Wine Birds from other wine stores in the area including big box stores such as COSTCO, Total Wine, and BevMo. Rod shared, "We focus on organic and biodynamic wines from France, Italy, and Spain. We also plan to open our store to a courtyard where guests can buy a bottle of wine to enjoy." I would add, perhaps a loaf of Prager's bread and some charcuterie, that Rod is looking into offering customers once the store opens to the courtyard. Rod also added, "Our plan is to serve both customers and other businesses with business to consumer (B2C) and business to business (B2B) models." Customers can come in with a menu and Rod, a Sommelier, and his team are happy to come up with pairings for dinner parties. He also looks forward to working with restaurants that are seeking great value, organic, and biodynamic wines to add to their menus. I really enjoyed the modern looking entry way with wines in cabinet shelves from the floor to 12 feet high. I also appreciated the diverse number of varietals, countries, and price ranges that Wine Birds offered as well as Rod's requirement that wholesalers ship wine to Wine Birds in temperature-controlled containers.

Riddle Wines was established out of Jeremy Riddle's desire to craft wines that authentically reflect the essence of the vineyard, the season's harvest, and the unique climate. Eschewing additives and heavy-handed techniques, Jeremy's approach is grounded in a commitment to purity. He immerses himself in the intricacies of winemaking, often spending nights near the aging barrels. Collaborating with vineyard owners who share his dedication to organic practices, he selects grapes cultivated without herbicides or pesticides. Embracing holistic methods that consider the entire vineyard ecosystem, Jeremy values the interplay of roots, birds, flora, and microbes. Continually seeking growth and collaboration, he embodies the spirit of an old-school, wine-loving enthusiast on a quest for viticultural perfection. His favorite wines to produce are sparkling and Rhone varietals.

hints of herbs of the nose and palate. The Grenache was unfiltered and aged for 10 months in neutral French oak. Fourth was a 2020 Vermentino fermented with macerated skins for 14 days. It was a lively wine with peach, lemon, and orange rind and hibiscus notes on the nose. The palate also had fruit flavors with lemon zest and apricot along with a tea leaf on the finish. Next up was the 2021 Counoise sourced from Mendocino, specifically Eagle Point Ranch. The small cluster Counoise mountain fruit had perfumed notes of lavender and pomegranate and bright fruit on the palate with a cracked pepper finish. The Counoise is aged for 13 months in neutral French oak, sur lees, and without sulfur.

The last two wines were my favorites. The 2020 Syrah had a full nose of violet and a variety of red fruit on the palate along with a nice long finish. The most intriguing wine of the lineup was the 2020 GSM blend sourced from David Girard's vineyard in the El Dorado AVA. Jeremy co-ferments the 41% Grenache, 39% Syrah, and 20% Mourvedre blend at the same time and all three varietals are picked on the same day! This is impressive considering three different varietals. The GSM blend is one of Riddle Wine's most produced wines along with the Syrah. Get more information on Riddle Wine's at riddlewines.com.

Jeremy, in collaboration with Rod and Katya, was pouring seven wines for the tasting. There was also charcuterie available to enhance the flavors of the wine. The first wine poured was a 2022 Chardonnay exclusive to Wine Birds. The fruit was sourced from Carneros and aged for one year in neutral oak sur lees (with the lees), with a native fermentation. It was a crisp Chardonnay with ripening tropical fruit on the nose and lemon zest on the palate. A 2020 Sparkling Grenache was poured next. I loved the creamy mouthfeel with subtle bubbles that tasted like a creamsicle with pomegranate notes. This bubbly wine was naturally aged without sugar or yeast for 22 months in neutral oak and would be a perfect mimosa replacement.

SPECTACULAR SUPER BOWL EXTRAVAGANZA HONORS MILITARY HEROES

In a heartwarming display of appreciation and camaraderie, Crisp Imaging CEO Gary Crisp, alongside his son Carter Crisp, the company's VP of Marketing, orchestrated their thirteenth magnificent Super Bowl extravaganza.

The event, held at the American Legion Hall Post 291 in Newport Beach, brought together a diverse array of guests, with a special focus on honoring the military community.

The Crisps welcomed 500 attendees with open arms and ensured that the festivities catered to every generation of service members. Among the distinguished guests were 300 active-duty Marines, who were bussed all the way from Camp Pendleton alongside dozens of veterans whose valor spanned conflicts dating back to World War II.

Reflecting on the event's significance, CEO Gary Crisp expressed profound gratitude, "We do this to express our gratitude to members of our military forces for all they have done to make our country what it is." He continued, "It gives us such joy to greet the young Marines as they get off the buses and to see them laughing, singing, dancing, eating, playing games, and enjoying the day together. I especially love seeing the older veterans sharing their stories and tips with the young recruits. It's an honor to bring them all together in a day meant to be pure fun for them."

As the Kansas City Chiefs clashed with the San Francisco Forty-Niners on seven jumbo flat-screen TVs, guests were treated to various culinary delights, including prime rib, pizza, hamburgers, hot dogs, and refreshing beverages. The atmosphere buzzed with excitement as attendees engaged in a plethora of activities, from cigar smoking to limo rides to Newport Beach's Wedge, a video game truck, Lear boat rides, cruises on a luxurious Hatteras 50' yacht, a magician, and a meet and greet with autographs of some of the greatest living legends in the NFL. Las Vegas-style games of chance provided an additional thrill for those feeling lucky and Las Vegas Showgirls! Marines lined up for haircuts, and a much-needed massage or chiropractic adjustment was provided.

The entertainment lineup was nothing short of sensational, with performances by the USC Marching Band, spirited dance routines by USC's Spirit Leaders, and eclectic musical acts spanning surf music, blues, and jazz. Renowned rappers Kuruption and Obie Trice, alongside deejay Salam Wreck, kept the crowd energized with their dynamic performances. A highlight of the day was the raucous WWE Lucha Libre wrestling show, captivating audiences with its high-flying maneuvers and theatrical flair.

But the festivities didn't end there. Before the game, during long commercial breaks and a part of halftime, the recruits could win raffle prizes for big-screen TVs, dart boards, motorcycle helmets, coolers, as well as cold hard cash. At the end of the evening, they departed with smiles on their faces and arms laden with thousands of dollars worth of cash and raffle prizes. Polynesian fire dancers greeted them before they boarded their buses. They mesmerized them with their performance, twirling flaming batons in a dazzling display of skill and artistry before the recruits left for Camp Pendleton.

Beyond the revelry, the event served a noble purpose, benefiting the Dana Point 5th Marine Regiment Support Group. With a mission to provide support and outreach to the 5th Marines and Sailors deployed from and stationed at Camp Pendleton and their families, Jill Watson, the Director of Support and Outreach, was there along with Treasurer Patti Short and volunteer Sonia LeTourneau. Crisp Imaging has committed $25,000 to the Dana Point 5th Marine Regiment, reaffirming its unwavering dedication to its men and women.

Directory Advertising Hits the Jackpot for Small Business with a Limited Ad Budget $49.95

"I'm not a big business, but I know that you have to advertise someplace and these little ads don't cost too much so I figure if you expect to get any new customers, I gave the little 'directory' ads in the newspaper a try. Nothing happened for the first week, not even a phone call. Then Boom! comes three new customers. Paid for my little ads and a nice profit. I'd say I hit the jackpot. Sign me up for another week newspaper ladies!"

The above story may not be exciting but is typical of advertisers who are shopping for advertising that is affordable but gives them something back for their money. Here's another:

As a Woman Who Owns A Small Business These Newspaper Directory Ads are a Great Value

"We women have to work harder to make a small business grow. Thanks to small, affordable ads in this newspaper I've got ads running every week. Every call helps my business grow. I give you an A+ for good prices and steady results."

Looking for the Penny Saver in all the Wrong Places

"I Used to get pretty good results from the Penny Saver, but when the Penny Saver closed up, I found this newspaper's little directory ads are even cheaper and work just about as good. Usually get two or three calls a month and most of them wind up being my customers. My bookkeeper says your directory ads work pretty good for the money"

Newspaper Directory Ads Worked Just Fine, Cost Less than Half-Nice!

"We tried some slick magazine ads that had beautiful pictures on the cover and they worked real good for a while but they were costing us an arm and a leg so we tried these little directory ads in your newspaper. The ads are smaller, but cost way less than half of what we were paying the magazines and the newspaper directory ads seem to work about as well. We are glad we tried them. They are a pretty good deal for the low price."

New Business Owner Likes Lower Priced Ads

"I Just Started my New Business and Happy that I Can Afford Your Newspaper Directory Ads. I need to attract new customers and these ads are priced just right."

BEETLEJUICE THE MUSICAL COMING TO SEGERSTROM CENTER FOR THE ARTS

It's showtime! The ghost-with-the-most will make his Costa Mesa debut in this edgy and irreverent new Broadway musical comedy. BEETLEJUICE will play at Segerstrom Center for the Arts April 16-28, 2024. Audiences will not want to miss out on the opportunity to experience this high-energy fan favorite production.

Based on Tim Burton's dearly beloved film, this hilarious musical tells the story of Lydia Deetz, a strange and unusual teenager whose whole life changes when she meets a recently deceased couple and a demon with a thing for stripes. With an irreverent book, an astonishing set, and a score that's out of this Netherworld, BEETLEJUICE is "SCREAMINGLY GOOD FUN!" (Variety). And under its uproarious surface (six feet under, to be exact), it's a remarkably touching show about family, love, and making the most of every Day-O!

BEETLEJUICE is based on the 1988 Academy Award-winning Geffen Company motion picture presented by Warner Bros. and directed by Tim Burton. The smash hit comedy starred Michael Keaton, Alec Baldwin, Geena Davis, Jeffrey Jones, Catherine O'Hara and Winona Ryder with story by Michael McDowell and Larry Wilson.
